Emma Gregory and Jane Spencer
Plate and Paper

Saturday 6 December

2 January to 31 January

Printmaker Emma Gregory and illustrator Jane Spencer met in Liverpool in 2006. In this exhibition they join forces to trumpet a passion for print.

Emma has worked for the Hayward Gallery, National Theatre, Riverside Studios, among others. She now runs the Bluecoat's print studio, teaches and makes drawings and prints for a growing audience of collectors, exhibiting widely.

Jane Spencer has worked freelance as an illustrator for clients such as Conde Nast and Harper Thorsons. She creates stylish and simple prints with a strong design flavour. Recently she has been presenting silk-screen workshops to Merseyside schools. This is her first exhibition in Liverpool.

This exhibition features prints created in the period since they met, and includes collographs, woodcuts, screen-prints and etchings.
